

Robb G & Reppin' My Cougs!

Everyone,

Attached is a song called "Reppin' My Coogs" performed by Houston-area rapper Rob G. This is a remake of Rob G's hit song "Reppin' My Block" - which was recently the #1 single in Texas.

We're really excited about this song because it talks entirely about Houston Cougar Football and specifically mentions things like the REDvolution, Whose House? Coogs House!, Robertson Stadium, Coach Yeoman, and Coach Briles. If you can't understand the words, I've attached the lyrics as well. Even if you don't like rap, this is worth listening to!

I hope that you will all enjoy it and pass it along to all the Cougar fans that you know. Rob G re-wrote this song free of charge, out of his love for the Cougars, so let's get it out to as many people as possible! Thanks for your help. See you at the Texas Bowl (where Rob G might perform the song with our marching band!) on Dec. 28th... (Article emailed 11/27/07)
